

Possible Indicators of Human Trafficking

Being disconnected from previous social life:
school, work, home, activities

Having bruises in various stages of healing

A child who has stopped attending school

Sudden, dramatic changes in behavior

Showing signs of physical or mental abuse

Appearing fearful, timid or submissive

Appearing to be denied food, water, sleep or medical care

Appearing to have been coached in what to say

Lacking personal possessions and/or a stable living situation

not all indicators required in every trafficking situation, and the presence of these indicators is NOT proof of human trafficking
